

Literacy and Numeracy statement

The College takes seriously its responsibility to promote positive attitudes towards literacy and numeracy because both are recognised as essential life skills.

Every teacher in the College is a teacher of literacy and numeracy and therefore has a duty to help develop these skills in the context of their subject.